Overview
The school newsletter is issued (electronically or hard copy by request) weekly on a Thursday to each family at Narellan Vale Public School.

Purpose
The primary purpose of the newsletter is to:

- Inform families in the school community of activities taking place at the school
- Communicate matters relating to public education in general
- Create a sense of cohesion by ensuring that all families are well informed

Advertising
Some advertising is permitted in the school newsletter - but must fit the following criteria:

- have an educational/social value to students and their families at our school
- not conflict in any way with the philosophy of public education
- not directly advertise "child minding services, academic tutoring, religious or political opinions"
- local schools wanting to advertise activities such as fets will not attract any fee
- other DET and related activities organisations wishing to advertise will not attract any fee (eg Sport and Rec camps)
- must be child related activities that will benefit our school and community
- all advertising must be paid for in advance
- general “For Sale” and “Lost and Found” advertisements will not be accepted

Rates
$7.70 per add, per week, written into newsletter.
